

Prep House Parent Position

Hilton Head Prep has opened its search for the role of Houseparent. For this role, we are looking for the individual who meets these minimum qualifications:

- Supportive of Residential Life Mission Statement and goals
- Positive and flexible person who can serve as a role model for students
- Ability and desire to build relationships with each student and serve as a general resource for day to day needs.
- Assist with creating and developing residential life programming and activities
- Assists with the orientation of new and returning students
- Assist with meal organization (which includes cooking)
- All around team player

House Parents are scheduled two days off per week with one rotating weekend. Prep offers a competitive salary/benefits package. In addition, we may have potential substitute teaching openings available.
