FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Congratulations to Prep senior Ben Eisinger on being selected as a finalist for Duke University's Benjamin N. Duke Memorial Scholarship. Ben's application was among the most compelling of more than 41,000 applications for admission to Duke.

The B.N. Duke Scholarship is awarded to outstanding students from North or South Carolina who have demonstrated commitments to leadership, community service, and academic merit. The program is named in honor of Mr. Benjamin N. Duke, a respected leader, businessman, and philanthropist.

The B.N. Duke Scholarship provides 100% tuition, mandatory fees, and room and board for four years (eight semesters), a summer program in the Carolinas, and access to generous enrichment funding for conferences, research, and internships during the academic year and summer. The program is designed to enable you to realize fully your intellectual ambitions, your individual talents, and your particular interests. The total value of the scholarship exceeds $75,000 annually.
